

Well, here we are, back again for another year! What you hold in your hands is the "TRAVERSLOG", the weekly newsheet of John Travers Cornwell, V.C. Our intention is to keep you up to date on what's happening in the Corps and around Chippawa. You must remember though this is YOUR newsheet, so it needs your help and your contributions. We will make a sincere effort to publish all announcements, notes, letters, and articles submitted. Deadline for submissions is Sunday. See either Lt. Fergusson or S/Lt. Ottenbreit.

942-4146 - MEMORIZE THAT NUMBER! If you can't come down on a Thursday and you haven't obtained leave, PHONE and let us know why you aren't down. This is the Ship's office number. Phone between 1900 and 2000 and keep phoning until you get through any Thursday you're not down.

Gun Crew has openings for four more people. Come out and see if you can take the pace. It's tough but it's also the best.

More activities soon to start - communications, photography, scuba diving. Watch for more info.

Saturday night sports - ping pong, badminton, floor hockey, circuit training, gymnastics, range. 1700 - 1900 every Saturday.

SPORTS SCENE

A beautiful sunny afternoon, October 19, saw the annual renewal of that old football rivalry between the officers of the wardroom, and the Petty Officers of the mess, in the biggest of the Bowl Games (so big it makes the Rose Bowl and the Super Bowl look small) THE BLOOD BOWL!

When the final whistle blew and the dust had settled, the score was Wardroom 25, Mess 0. The seasoned veterans of the Wardroom, with the rookies picked up in the off-season draft, pushed their running game down the threats of the young team from the Mess. Behind the quarterbacking of S/Lt. W.A. Ottenbreit and the veteran Lt. "Suds" Sutherland who replaced Ottenbreit in the second half, the Wardroom ran at will; over, through, and around the young Petty Officers. Outstanding players in the game were S/Lt G. Bruce, who picked off three interceptions and the entire offensive backfield of the Wardroom. Lt. S. "the Galloping Gnome" McNair did not dress for the game (he's still on the 21 year injury reserve list) as a result of a shoulder injury picked up in a previous game.
