CORPS HISTORY

RCSCC JOHN TRAVERS CORNWELL VC came into being in 1920 first known as the Boys' naval Brigade. It then was known for many years as the Winnipeg Sea Cadets. When the actual name was selected in the 1940's no more fitting name could be used than that of the 16 year old boy seaman of the Battle of Jutland who died of his wounds received at his post on a gun of HMS CHESTER. His display of courage in his youth earned him the Victoria Cross as gazetted 15 Sep 1916.

Boy, First Class, John Travers Cornwall, O.N.J. 42563, for the conspicuous act of bravery specified below:

"Mortally wounded early in the action, Boy, First Class, John Travers Cornwall remained standing alone at a most exposed post, quietly awaiting orders, until the end of the action, with the gun's crew dead and wounded all around him. His age was under sixteen and a half years."

COMMANDING OFFICER'S MESSAGE

I wish to take this opportunity to say Thank You to the parents, families and friends of the Corps, for their support and interest throughout the training year, and on this special night, the Annual Inspection.

The cadets have worked and practiced very hard in preparation for the Inspection and I am sure you will enjoy the results.

I would also like to say Thank You to the Officers and Instructors of the Corps for their countless hours of extra time they were willing to invest in support of Corp activities.

On behalf of the Corps, our thanks indeed to the Navy League of Canada, Manitoba Division, Winnipeg Branch, and the Ladies Auxiliary. Also to Commander Duggan, Commanding Officer of H.M.C.S. Chippawa, the Staff Officer, and the Unit Warrant Officer.

I am very pleased with the work this year by both the Cadets and the Officers of RCSCC JOHN TRAVERS CORNWELL V.C.
