

Congratulations and well done are extended to the Chief and the members of the Petty Officers Mess for sponsoring a very successful Tri-Service Centennial Cadet Ball. Everyone in attendance; a number exceeding 500 had a truly enjoyable evening with "Fresh Lemon" supplying the music. A note of thanks is extended to this group as they only took two small breaks all evening. For those who missed this dance try to make a special effort to attend any future dances.

In the hockey game of the year played Saturday 23, at 1;20 in the morning the Officers of John Travers Cornwell V.C. once again proved their superiority on the ice. Two former cadets also played in the game, one for each side. Thanks are extended to Phil Hay of the Officers team and Robb Boguski (Chief of Quinte) who played for the Petty Officers. A special note of thanks is extended to Officer Cadet McLaughlin who called a fair game for both teams. The final score was Officers 8 Petty Officers 6.

Ordinary Cadet Webb of Kootenay division tells this weekly that thus far only 3 teams have approached him about the upcoming bowling tournament. If you are interested in this tournament but can not get a team together give O/D Webb your name and he will place you on a team. You may approach him at Standeasy or secure.

O

Officer Ca det Webb of Gatineau division informs us that vacancies still exist in his gymnastics classes held on Saturday evenings. If your interested see Cdt. Webb any Saturday.

An apology is extended to Iroquois division for an error printed in last weeks Traverslog. In the Sports Spotlight it was reported that the Algonquin Avengers had squeaked by Blando's Bloopers by a score of 4-3. The actual score was 3-3 a tie game.

* All activities planned for Saturday night are cancelled due to JTC's first initiative training weekend. All activities should resume April 6th.

Spotlight on Sports with Petty Officer Dolinski

Action resumed in the John Travers Cornwell V.C. Floor Hockey league on Sunday the 24 due to the dance. In the first game of the afternoon the Gatineau Gorrillas kept their record intact as they lost to the front running Kootenay Clubs 9-0. Kootenay as a result of the victory now has soul possession of first place.

In the second game, a quick paced encounter, the Restigouche Raiders rallied late in the first half to knot the score at 1-1 with the Terra Nova Terrors. The raiders almost pulled the game out of the hat in the dying minutes of the game when a goal by L/C Hamel was disallowed due to one hand on the stick.
